About Brendan

Brendan has devoted his life to the study and teaching of Horsemanship in the Classical tradition. He has learned from many disciplines including Natural Horsemanship, Dressage, Reining, Show Jumping and Racing. He has combined his experiences and successes in all of these disciplines as well as a constant intense study of the Classical Masters, in order to develop his skills as a horseman and teacher.

Brendan seeks to follow the wisdom and principles of the Classical Masters, handed down from teachers like Nuno Oliveira, Xenophon, Baucher, La Gueriniere, Dr. Klimke, Steinbrecht, Podhajski, Anja Beran and Philippe Karl.

Natural Horsemanship and French Classical Dressage are at the very core of Brendan's personal horsemanship. Brendan has a passion for the proper training, conditioning, and maintaining of the integrity of the horse's mind and body from beginning to end. A great reverence, respect and admiration for the horse guides every thought that Brendan has in training. It is his hope that he might bring a refreshing and much needed breath of air to the training of high level horses, with a commitment to putting the horse first.

Brendan has been a featured clinician and teacher at events such as Horseworld Expo, Equine Affaire, World Equestrian Games and many more.
